IT ALL COMES DOWN TO THIS...

By Kirstie Fitzgerald

One game. One result. One champion team.

For 12 junior teams, today is the day they have worked so hard to be a part of.

Waking up on Grand Final day is one most players savour for many years to come. Packing your gear, nervously sitting in the car as you drive down to the venue and pulling on the jumper to run out to a screaming crowd, is a feeling you won't forget.

However as the saying goes, there can only be one winner. While we all want our hands on the elusive premiership cup, winning today is by no means the only measure of success.

Today we celebrate the achievements of all our players, coaches, volunteers and clubs who have worked tirelessly to ensure your team has the opportunity to play in a Grand Final.

Simply making it to the last day on the football calendar is a great success in itself, so please remember to show your support for all involved-win, lose or draw.

This weekend we also recognize the unity of our vast cultural diversity, in the AFL's Multicultural Round. From August 7-9, the wider football community will come together and celebrate the many nations, which are involved in our great game.

In the WRFL alone, we have a rich cultural tapestry of players, coaches, volunteers and supporters who have come from more than 67 different countries. This diversity not only helps those around us understand our teammates, but also strengthens the community as a whole.

With the west renowned for its cultural diversity, there are a number of football events, which you can get involved in. For a look at where your nearest Multicultural event is, please turn to page 5.

Of course don't forget to log onto the WRFL website (www.wrfl.asn.au) and watch the latest episode of the hugely popular Junior Footy Show where we will bring you some of the best action from the Junior Final Series. Appearing online every Wednesday afternoon, hear from some of the players and coaches who make our game so great.

Still can't get enough of your local football? Then make sure you stay up-to-date via our official Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts using the handle @westernregionfl.

Until then, play hard, kick straight and best of luck to you and your team on this Grand Final weekend.

WRFL FUTURE STARS

Owen King - Yarraville Seddon Eagles Football Club

In Week #3 of the WRFL's Future Stars segment, our Media Manager Kirstie Fitzgerald caught up with a young rising star from the Yarraville Seddon Eagles Football Club, Owen King.

Suffering a season ending wrist injury in Round 1 last year, Owen has come back bigger and better this season and is enjoying every minute of it. Selected in the WRFL Under 15A Interleague side this year, "Kingy" was named in the best players in all three matches and booted a staggering 16 goals across the carnival, eight of which during his match against the RDFL. We wish him well during his Grand Final match this afternoon in the Under 16B competition.

NAME: Owen King

NICKNAME: Kingy, not very original I know.

CLUB: Yarraville Seddon Eagles and Maribyrnong Sports Academy.

AGE: 15

GAMES PLAYED: About 125 games for Yarraville Seddon Eagles.

JUMPER NUMBER: No. 28. It's not my favourite number but it was the only jumper left that fit me.

FAVOURITE POSITION: Centre Half Forward and I also spend a lot of time on the ball.

THIS SEASON'S HIGHLIGHT: Last year I broke my wrist in the first quarter of the first game and missed 12 weeks so just playing a full season at Yarraville has been my highlight.

CAREER HIGHLIGHT: Playing Western Jets and playing in the WRFL Junior Interleague games. We had a fantastic team this year and won all three WRFL games.

CAREER AIM: To play AFL or any job that I love.

FAVOURITE AFL TEAM & PLAYER: Western Bulldogs. It was a done deal before I was born because my grandad Jack King played for the Dogs in the 1950's. Nat Fyfe is my favourite player because he's part of a new breed of elite midfielders that can play in all positions on the field.

BEST THINGS ABOUT FOOTBALL: I've played soccer and basketball but I prefer footy because it's got a bit of everything.

PRE-GAME RITUAL: I tend to sleep in as long as possible before one of my parents drags me out of bed and then I try to eat as much food as I can before getting to the game.

WHAT DOES YOUR COACH ALWAYS TELL YOU TO DO: My coach Paul is a young guy who has the same mantra each week - have pride in your jumper and give 110% effort.

IN FIVE YEARS TIME I HOPE TO: Play for an AFL team but if not, backpacking around Europe with my best mates would be great.

MULTICULTURAL ROUND IN THE WEST

By Alex Karavas

Football is about togetherness.

It's about people of all nationalities, beliefs, and genders coming together for the joy of sport.

While multiculturalism is thriving in the western region on a regular basis, the WRFL will join the wider football community to celebrate the AFL's Multicultural Round from August 7-9.

The Asian Cup will be in full swing again this year, as the curtain raiser to the Western derby VFL game between Williamstown vs Footscray, which will be held on Sunday August 9 at Burbank Oval.

Two Asian teams in the Western All- Stars and the Southern Dragons, will battle it out for the Asian Cup which has been a fierce tradition for the last three years.

In their first three years of competition, the Southern Dragons have won the SFL's Division Three title, and despite having a break from competition this year, will be filled with immense talent this weekend.

The Western All-Stars is a community football team made up of predominantly Vietnamese players, who are committed to growing the game and creating a pathway for all backgrounds into local western region clubs.

AFL Victoria Football Development Manager, Tony Nguyen, said that the event was a good way for both players and local clubs to embrace each other.

"The Asian cup is really about breaking down the barriers for highly talented Asian players who don't have the belief of joining a local football team and showcasing their talent.

"As a result, the Braybrook Sporting Club has recruited four to five players over the journey so it's great to see that transition of players back into the community.

"We want people to embrace football, and embrace one another, which is what these programs are aimed to do."

On the other side of the western region, the Werribee Football Club is doing their part to celebrate our vast diversity with a dedicated Multicultural Day held at their next home match against Footscray at Avalon Airport Oval on Sunday August 30.

With many different nationalities represented in the Wyndham area, Werribee Football Club Community Development ambassador, Majok Ngong, said the club is dedicated in bringing the community together through its cultural diversity.

"Werribee is very heavily involved in the community with our school programs and it's something we are passionate about and engaging with people.

"This will be the fifth year that we will be hosting a multicultural day, and I guess it's all about celebrating different cultures around Wyndham."

Ngong himself comes from a Sudanese background so for him to see the club so heavily involved in multiculturalism "is an honour for me and creates a sense of belonging for us within the community."

With many successful AFL players coming from a range of diverse ethnicities, people across the west should encourage others to get involved in the various multicultural events this weekend, in order to not only bridge the gap, but to also embrace one another's company.

FALCONS READY TO SWOOP

By Sophie Hammill

Wyndhamvale Youth Girls coach Steve Tessari brings his team together to talk to them about the next game plan during a quarter time break. Photo: Kirstie Fitzgerald.

The Wyndhamvale Youth Girls team is ready to make history this Saturday as they run out to play in the Western Youth Girls Grand Final against Melbourne University.

While the combined Western Youth Girls competition between the EDFL and WRFL has been running since 2013, the WRFL is yet to have one of its own teams taste premiership glory.

Over the past three seasons, the Youth Girls competition has become exceptionally strong, with players having the opportunity to compete against an array of different clubs as well as give new teams time to develop.

Having played each other only twice this year, the Falcons seem to have the upper hand on their Melbourne University counterparts, having convincingly defeated them on each occasion.

But it's not only Melbourne University who the Falcons have defeated this year, with co- captains Sabin Nyawela and Brook Eley leading the team to an undefeated season and sit comfortably on top of the ladder.

Having played each other a fortnight ago in the second semi-final, long time Wyndhamvale coach Steve Tessari is hoping their unbeaten run continues.

"While we have had a good season so far, the girls must stay grounded and focused.

"It was unfortunate that Melbourne Uni played straight after the girls Under 18 carnival which meant they didn't have their strongest side performing, but make no mistake, both sides will be out to win so we must play our best game if we want to win the premiership."

The return of Melbourne University State players will be just one of the challenges that Wyndhamvale faces today as they aim for the flag.

Having lost to Melbourne University last year in the preliminary final, Wyndhamvale is determined to even the ledger, with the loss motivating them to increase the standard of football and review their tactics.

"The girls' standard has risen a lot since last year and they are incredibly committed," Tessari said.

Commencing training twice a week since last November by request of the players, Tessari said that they have worked well as a team.

"The girls are very easy to coach and hang off every word."

The team ranges from girls aged 13 – 18, with all players having exceptional skills and a "willingness to learn" which makes the Wyndhamvale Youth Girls "really good footballers."

Earning a week off with the bye last week, the mood around the club has been "very positive" as they continue to prepare for the big day.

Here's hoping all their hard work pays off and the 2015 Western Youth Girls premiership returns to the WRFL this season.

UMPIRES CORNER

By Graeme Hodgart

One of the young WRFL umpires who will be officiating in the junior finals is Shannon van Boven. Aged only 14, he lives in Hoppers Crossing, supports the mighty Blues and is in his first year of umpiring. Shannon is in Year 8 at Good News Lutheran College. After attending the pre-season information night at MacKillop College, he decided to give both field and boundary umpiring a go. Shannon sees that through umpiring he can increase his fitness but also to gain a better understanding of the rules. Now, he combines his umpiring with playing Under 16 football for the Wyndham Suns.

Shannon has shown his enthusiasm to progress in umpiring circles by attending training sessions at not only the academy at MacKillop but also nights at both Scovell Reserve in Maidstone and Saltwater Reserve in Point Cook. Although Shannon has just begun his umpiring, he sees his appointment in an Under 13 interleague game as a boundary umpire in his first season as a definite highlight.

Shannon has set himself several goals for the rest of season 2015. He hopes to be selected in a junior grand final and to also be able to officiate in a senior game. A long term goal is to make it to the VFL but at this stage he's not too sure whether that will be as a player or an umpire. Outside of football, Shannon's favourite music is pop and hip hop, he is interested in cricket and basketball and enjoys a big plate of lasagne.

Here's hoping that Shannon has a great junior finals series and is rewarded with a junior grand final. Of course, not everyone will get what they want but his hard work both on and off the field means that he is working progressively towards his goals.
