

THE RECORD

ISSUE 1
APRIL 14, 2018

RAMS Western Region have provided significant support to the league in a variety of ways including taking on the Umpire sponsorship in 2017 and will continue to do so over 2018.

If you are self employed and either looking for new finance or wanting to re financing and existing loan give them a call and you'll be pleasantly surprised as to how they can help you.....and don't forget to mention the WRFL

How RAMS helps the self-employed:

- An application process with less paperwork, less hassle than you'd expect
- Borrow up to 80% of the purchase price (funds to cover transaction costs also required) - for owner occupiers or investors
- We can talk to you 7 days a week to discuss your needs.

Being self-employed can mean fluctuations in your income. RAMS understands.

It can also mean you spend more time looking after customers and perhaps less time maintaining paperwork. RAMS appreciates this reality too.

So if you're self-employed and in the market for a home loan, we've got several home loans for the self-employed that don't require the usual financial statements or tax returns.

RAMS were awarded 'Best Self-Employed Lender' at the 2017 Australian Lending Awards, which highlight mortgage lenders who provide exceptional products and services.

RAMS, Winner of Best Self-Employed Lender

KICKIN' IT WITH KRISTEN

WELCOME TO THE 2018 WRFL SEASON

By KRISTEN ALEBAKIS

AFTER a busy off-season, WRFL Footy is finally back.

A lot has happened since the final siren sounded in the Division 1 Grand Final last season. The WRFL has since introduced a new standalone Senior Women's competition, with 10 teams vying for premiership glory. The league has also announced a Netball Competition in 2018. Both competitions are being supported by new partner Victoria University.

The Senior Women's Football and Netball competition both begin next week. The Junior competition will also kick-off on April 22.

However, this weekend is all about Senior Men's footy, with the Division 1, 2 and 3 competitions all starting.

Over the past 210 days teams from across the west have been working hard to prepare for the new season. A new season brings new coaches, new players and new hope. Could 2018 be your year?

This year the WRFL welcomes the Point Cook Football Club into the senior competition. The Bulldogs have moved across from the VAFA into the WRFL Division 2 competition. Coached by Ian Denny, the team from Saltwater Reserve have been busy recruiting new players - none bigger than former Barry Priest medalist Wayde Skipper. Point Cook could be a contender this season.

Glen Orden is also back in business after the club didn't field a Senior side in 2017. The Hawks are in Division 3 and host the Point Cook Centrals in Round 1. Like many others across our footy community, I wish them all the best in 2018.

This year the WRFL Radio team will look a little different after Kevin Hillier's decision that 2017 would be his last year of calling games after a long and successful association with the match-day broadcast.

The radio crew will be led by Peppe Cavalieri and Andrew Wilson. The first match they will be covering is the Division 1 clash between Deer Park and Altona. Make sure you tune in to 88.9 WYN FM to hear the call.

See you at the footy.

UMPIRES CORNER

UMPIRES SET FOR NEW WRFL SEASON

By GRAEME HODGART

So here we are at the beginning of yet another season.

The practise games are over and the real games begin today. Hopefully the cobwebs have been cleared away and everyone is ready to get straight into the action.

Like the majority of clubs, the umpires have been hard at work since early in February. For eight weeks the field, boundary and goal umpires have been fine tuning their skills and improving their fitness for Round 1.

This is the second season that the WRFL umpires have been based at Hanmer Reserve, Seddon. For some of the pre-season Wednesday night training sessions the umpires have been sharing the ground with the Parkside Football Club.

Somehow the council thought that both the umpires and the footy club could co-exist on the small football oval. They did, and they did it well although having over 50 footballers and a larger number of umpires sharing the space meant those in charge needed to use a little creative thinking on a few occasions.

Mark Westgarth is again in charge of the umpiring fraternity and things are humming along nicely even at this early stage of the season.

Already the umpires have had a series of meetings. One of these, held just last week, highlighted the proceedings of the WRFL tribunal. The idea was to show all umpires, field, boundary and goal, the workings of the tribunal and prepare individual umpires for any time in which they are required to go to the tribunal. This proved to be an invaluable session because there are many umpires who have not had the need to go to the tribunal in the past.

As a new season rolls around, there are many changes amongst the clubs. Similarly, some umpires have retired, a few have returned after an absence, and there are many newcomers. The umpiring coaches have been working hard on preparing all umpires with the necessary skills in order to manage and officiate our great game.

Here's wishing everyone, clubs, players, officials, spectators and umpires all the very best for the new season. May 2018 be full of many positive highlights and hopefully everyone is able to enjoy local football, both seniors and juniors, both male and female competitions, at its best.

QUIZ

In a senior WRFL match a defender takes possession of the football 15 metres out from the opposition's goal. While under no pressure the player deliberately kicks the ball through the behind area. What does the goal umpire do?

- (a) Quickly taps the chest three times, signals a behind and waves one flag;
- (b) Taps the chest three times and looks towards the field umpire for the all clear.
- (c) Waits for the field umpire to award a free kick for deliberately kicking the ball through the opposition's scoring area.

The correct answer was (b).
