Senior Final Series – Issue 3, September 15th & 16th, 2018

By MATTHEW DUCK

After 2394 games, just 11 matches remain of the 2018 season, eight of them Grand Finals. As the penultimate weekend of the season, this week sees the Division 3 and Division 2 Grand Finals respectively. It also heralds the inaugural VU Polytechnic WRFL Senior Women's Grand Final.

It will come as no great surprise to anyone that female participation has increased dramatically over the past two years. As this table demonstrates, we've seen a 750% increase in females playing the game in just three short years.

On Saturday evening the benchmark of the women's competition, Manor Lakes, take on the heir apparent in Caroline Springs. Having formed a handful of years ago, Manor Lakes bring with them plenty of experience. But as the Lakers demonstrated against Spotswood last weekend, they have the capacity to transition the ball from defense to attack very quickly, and whilst they come up against a formidable opponent, they must surely go in with some confidence as well as great support.

On the topic of support, Victoria University's support of the Women's competition and female sport in the west more broadly can't be underestimated. VU's partnership this year included not just the obvious elements, but even free access to its education spaces for the Volunteers Conference held earlier this year. We look forward to expanding that partnership in a number of areas moving forward, with some great benefits to clubs to be rolled out.

In Division 2, the best two sides of the year fittingly come up against each other. After moving across as a senior entity from the VAFA last year, it's been a terrific season for Point Cook. The club has professionally gone about its business, notching up win after win, and whilst they come up against a very strong Yarraville Seddon, they'll surely fancy their chances. That said, the Eagles have barely put a foot wrong all year, and are a well-led outfit that on their day are hard to stop. Should they hold the cup aloft on Sunday afternoon, it would be a fitting end to a dominant season.

Division 3 sees Point Cook Centrals take on the Wyndham Suns. The Sharks have plenty of pace, but the Suns have had two impressive years in Division 3 and appear ready to take the next step. This should be a terrific encounter between two very good teams.

Over at Burbank Oval in Division 1, Altona will be lining up in the 19s, Reserves and Seniors, keen to make amends for a disappointing day at Werribee last Saturday. Standing in their way will be Hoppers Crossing (seniors), Deer Park (Reserves) and Caroline Springs (Under 19s) respectively.

For those finishing their season this weekend, congratulations on making it deep into September. For those watching, we acknowledge Grand Finals can be emotional, and that's to be expected – just try to keep the emotions in check and remain respectful at all times. Remember that the white line doesn't excuse poor behavior that wouldn't be tolerated in any other public space.

Good luck to all teams this weekend, and I'll see you at the footy.

DEER PARK THROUGH TO SIXTH STRAIGHT FINAL

By CONNOR PAIN

Deer Park is one step closer to a sixth consecutive premiership flag after its dominant second half helped the Lions storm home to a 53-point smashing of Altona.

It was the Vikings who jumped out of the blocks and kicked the first four goals of the match, but as they've done so often over the course of their historic run, the Lions weren't to be outdone and slowly clawed their way back into the game.

They booted six goals to one after Altona's hot start and entered half time up by six points, which saw both teams engage in a shoving contest as they walked to their respective changerooms.

Altona looked ready to bring the fight with a goal inside the first minute of the second half, but that was as good as it got.

Deer Park turned on the jets and didn't look back; booting 10 majors in the second half as they ran riot.

The 16.12. (108) to 8.7. (55) win showed why they've won the flag in five straight seasons and have the week off ahead of the RAMS Division Grand Final on September 22.

Altona stay alive in the finals, but will need to beat Hoppers Crossing if they are to reach the last game of the season and have a tilt at knocking off the Deer Park machine.

The Warriors survived a furious comeback attempt from Spotswood as they ran out 7.8. (50) to 6.11. (47) victors.

In windy conditions that favoured neither side, Hoppers Crossing's defence shone allowing just one Woodsmen goal through three quarters.

Hoppers led by 30-points at the last break as Spotswood's chances seemed all but over. A five-goal last term flipped the game on its head as the Woodsmen stormed back and almost produced an almighty comeback.

It wasn't to be however as the Warriors did enough to hold on by just three points, booking their place alongside Altona in the Preliminary Final for a chance to face Deer Park and end the Lions historic premiership run.

Braden Ferrari and Daniel Nielson were among Hoppers Crossing's best, neither side having a multiple goal scorer.

BULLDOGS UP FOR THE FIGHT

POINT Cook is through to the Division 2 Senior Grand Final after defeating Parkside in emphatic fashion at VU Whitten Oval on Saturday.

The Bulldogs made the perfect start in their Preliminary Final clash with the Magpies, keeping their opponents goalless in the first quarter.

At half time the game was put beyond doubt with Point Cook holding onto a 37-point lead.

Ian Denny's team continued to fire in the second half as they booted nine goals to two.

It was a disappointing result for the Magpies, who had previously beaten the Bulldogs in the regular season.

It was a complete performance by Point Cook, who recorded 33 scoring shots to 10 in the 83-point victory. The final scoreline was Point Cook 15.18. (108) to Parkside 3.7. (25).

Kirk Heberle was the main target up forward for Point Cook, he kicked six goals in the victory. Matthew Poland and Alex Grigg also played well.

Point Cook have now set up a showdown with the Yarraville Seddon Eagles in Sunday's Division 2 Grand Final.

The teams met two weeks ago, with the Eagles edging out the Bulldogs in a tough encounter at Burbank Oval.

The 28-point margin in that Semi Final was the closest the Bulldogs got to the Eagles all season.

The decider is shaping up to be a great game with both teams eyeing Premiership glory in the final game in September.

The Grand Final will be played at Avalon Airport Oval in Werribee at 2.15pm on Sunday.

TEAMWORK AND COMMUNICATION KEY ON GAME DAY

By GRAEME HODGART

Prior to the Senior Finals the Director of Umpiring, Mark Westgarth, held a meeting with WRFL Umpires. He spoke about the need of continuing to do the important aspects that the umpiring fraternity has been highlighting all season.

Teamwork: teamwork between the match day field umpires; teamwork between field umpires and boundary umpires; teamwork between field umpires and goal umpires; teamwork between boundary umpires and goal umpires.

Composure, communication and control were also a major focus of the meeting. In a game situation, umpires at the WRFL level, no matter the grade, need to be able to maintain their composure, irrespective of the circumstances. They also need to possess and use appropriate communication skills towards each other, but also when addressing players and club officials. Likewise, being able to control the overall running of the game and controlling the players under the rules are important aspects for umpires. So is the ability to control their own performance in terms of decision-making, positioning, and verbal and visual communication.

A great example of composure, communication and control occurred in a recent WRFL match. There was a contest for the ball that included a heavy, but legal bump on a player. When the ball moved on, one player decided to remonstrate with his opponent. The two players grabbed each other and began to push and hold and shove each other. Some nearby players saw what was happening and began to move towards the shuffle. The closest field umpire, Greg Denison, after handing play to one of his colleagues, saw the pushing players. He recognised that the two players were actually the respective captains of each team. In a firm but loud voice, Greg simply called out, "Hey, guys. Show some leadership." The effect was immediate. Before the cavalry arrived, the two simply pushed each other away and dashed after the ball.

Another positive example happened in a Senior Final when the ball was on the boundary line being contested by several players. The ball bounced off the body of one player before contacting the knee of his opponent and going out of bounds in the forward pocket. One player shouted that it was out on the full while the young boundary umpire, who was very close to the play, was unsure. The field umpire took control of the situation, and quickly rushed in, conferred with the boundary umpire and then talked to the goal umpire. Between the three they came up with their decision.

Hopefully in the finals this weekend, there will be many examples of umpires displaying teamwork and composure, communication and control.

SUNS BOOK GRAND FINAL DATE WITH SHARKS

By NICK BOYLAN

In a see-sawing contest, the Wyndham Suns managed to pull away from Tarneit to record a 27-point win and book their place in the Division 3 Grand Final against Point Cook Centrals.

In front of a packed house at Pennell Reserve in Braybrook, the Suns were able to make their chances count more than the Titans in the first quarter, with the wind causing havoc at Tarneit's scoring end. Wyndham's slick ball movement through the corridor continued to provide Steve Neralic with scoring opportunities, while Tarneit struggled to crack the Suns' defensive unit.

Adam Scarpino continued to cut off the Titan's tilts forward, as an inaccurate Tarneit trailed the Suns by 8-points at quarter time.

Titans coach Mark Elso reinforced the need for patience at the quarter-time huddle, emphasising his players need to not "panic and be silly", especially with movement out of the back half. Elso also demanded more pressure in the forward half, and this was answered all over the ground, as Tarneit worked back into the game during the second term. While Wyndham scored the first of the quarter through a boundary-line snap from Haidyn Boothey, the Titans were able to gain the ascendancy, as John Zangari was able to do damage up forward. Adam Miriklis also started to work himself into the game, but the Wyndham Suns still managed to kick goals of their own, ensuring scores were level at the main change.

The third quarter saw the game go up a notch, as both teams exchanged goals while the weather cleared, and allowed for a more free-flowing contest. Wyndham's run was able to get going once again, setting up more Neralic opportunities to get on the scoreboard. Miriklis was able to match these efforts at the other end, taking a terrific diving mark across the pack and converting a massive goal for the Titans, as the momentum continued to swing.

In amongst the chaos, Richard Psaila was able to slot his second for the quarter, with the Titans going into the last change ahead by four points.

After a stirring speech from coach Boothey emphasising unity and strength in the contest, Wyndham were able to come out of the blocks with two goals from three centre clearances to start the last quarter. Rhys Kirk and Dean Cachia provided targets while Neralic was off the ground, as the Suns begun to run away with the contest. Neralic returned to kick two more goals, ensuring the Suns victory and path to the Grand Final on Saturday.

The Titans fought hard all day, but were ultimately overrun, with no doubt they will challenge for a Grand Final spot in 2019. For Wyndham, they're able to improve from last year's preliminary final exit, and take on the well-rested Sharks in what promises to be a great Grand Final.

MANOR LAKES AND CAROLINE SPRINGS TO MEET AGAIN

By JESS MACKEY

The two teams facing off in the Victoria University Polytechnic Senior Women's Grand Final next week have been decided, as Caroline Springs defeated Spotswood by a convincing 28-points at VU Whitten Oval at the weekend.

The Lakers have been strong all year, and played at their best again to take down Spotswood in the Preliminary Final.

Spotswood struggled to score for a lot of the game, as Caroline Springs kicked three goals in the first quarter while keeping the opposition scoreless.

Despite Spotswood finding avenues to goal much clearer in the second half, it just wasn't enough and the clear winners on the day were the Lakers.

Alexandra Fato and Caitlin Pretty starred as they have all season, kicking two goals each to get their team over the line.

Lauren Dundon kicked three goals for Spotswood, but it just wasn't enough. Dundon has had a fantastic individual season, she ended the year having kicked 56 goals.

Inaccuracy was somewhat an issue, as Caroline Springs had 19 shots at goal, but were only able to convert eight of those major scores. While Spotswood had six scoring opportunities, but made the most of those.

The win sees Caroline Springs earn the final spot in the Victoria University Polytechnic Senior Women's Grand Final. They'll meet Manor Lakes, who after winning the Semi Final earned the week off.

The two teams met in that Semi Final, with the Storm winning by 60-points.

Both Manor Lakes and Caroline Springs have been the best two teams of the competition this season and will play-off in the decider at Avalon Airport Oval on Saturday.
